The Administrators Are Our Friends

As our high school career draws to a close, we can look back over the last four years and remember the friendly counsel given us by the administration. "Where will I go to college?" "I don't know what vocation to choose!" "My program is a mess." "I know I have more conflicts that anyone!" These and many other problems and questions may be answered merely by talking to one of our able administrators. Their patience and understanding have helped us through many a difficult program. Always ready with a kind word and smile, they have been every pupil's friends in need.

Counseling with Mr. Walter Gingery, principal, are Kenneth Ayres, Sue Blank, and Albert Cooper.

Miss Myrtle Johnson, dean of girls, discusses problems with Barbara Van Hook, Sara McCottery, Alice McAdams, and Norma Gibson.

Mr. Audie Watkins, dean of boys, gives advise to Frank Fleser.

Counseling with Mr. Justin Marshall and Mr. A. K. Jones, vice-principals, are Shirley Haines, Wayne Stanfield, and Jim Marshall.

We're The Senior Class of 1950

We are the Senior Class, and our high school years are coming to an end. In the future, our most important memories will be of this last year. When September rolled around, we took our places in senior roll call. When the basketball season began, we gave after game dances to help finance the mid-winter dance, the Washington Birthday Ball. Now, we proudly continue to wear our class colors of blue, brown, and yellow, and look forward to Class Day, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. We appreciate the advice of our sponsors who helped us plan and revise our program schedules. We also appreciate the wholehearted support which they gave to the various activities planned by us throughout the year.

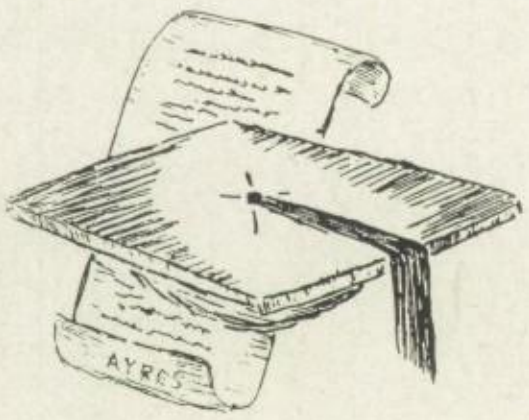
Class Officers



The aud still echoes with the sound of a gavel and our president's voice saying, "Will the class please come to order?" Elected as officers of the Senior Class, were: Albert Cooper, president; Larry Lord, vice-president; Joan Hart, secretary; Jim Seamon, treasurer; and Boris Lalioff, sergeant-at-arms.

Soon after our entrance into senior roll call, committees were formed, and they in turn planned many of the year's activities. A ball commemorating the birthday of Washington is a new activity begun by the 1950 Senior Class.

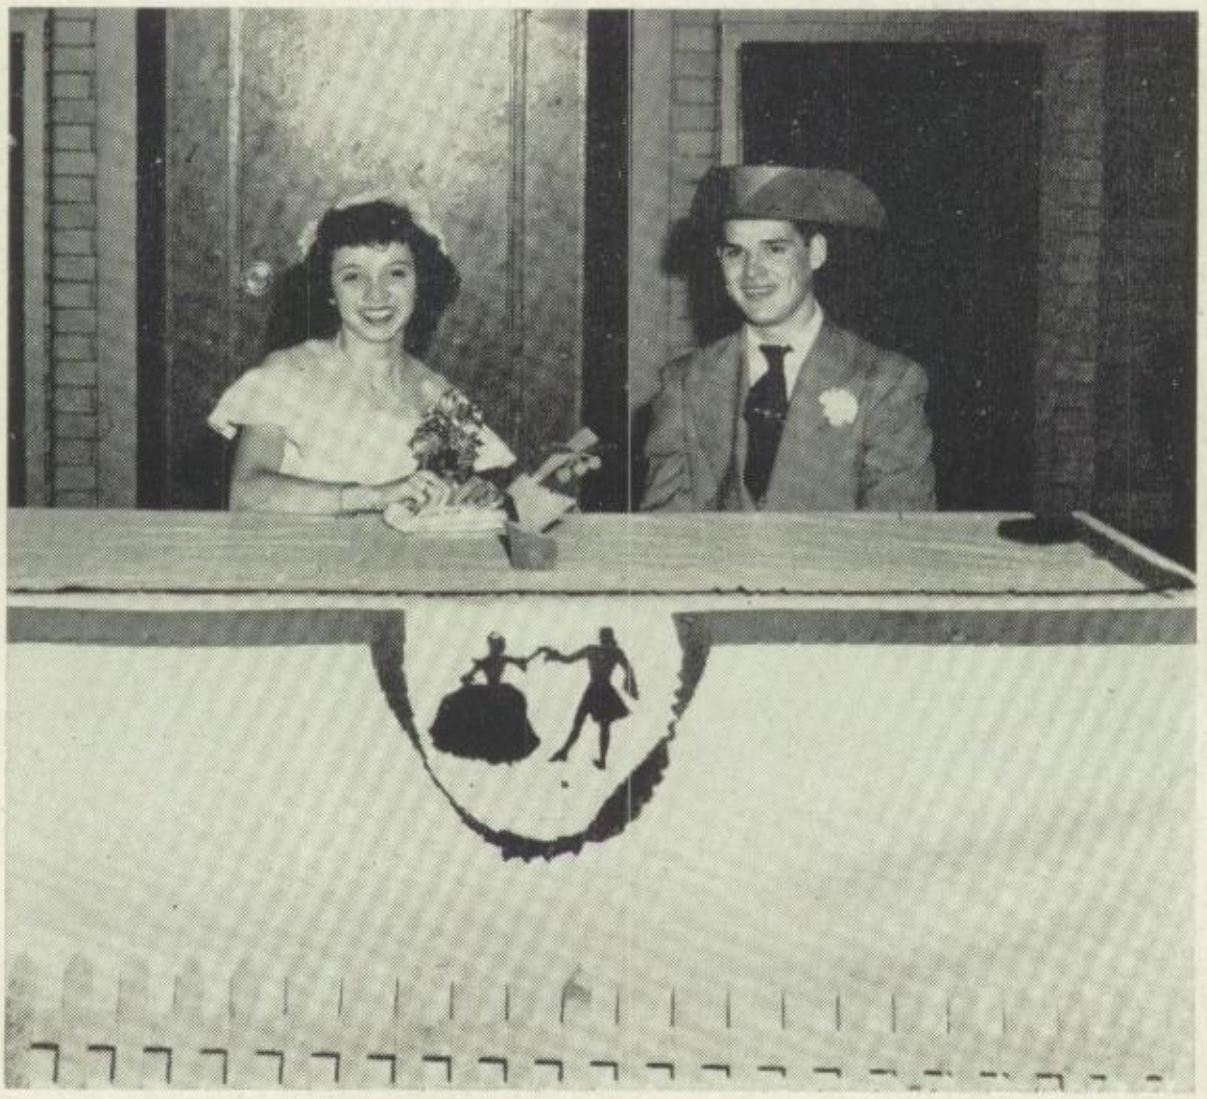
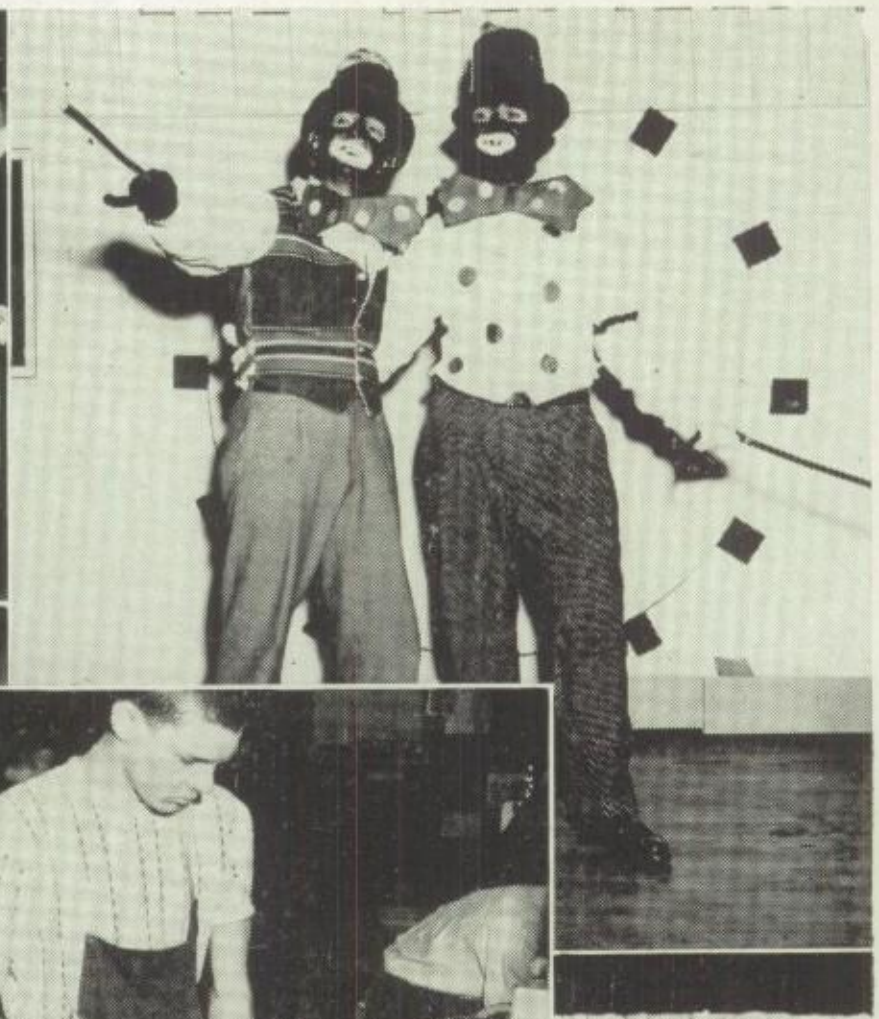
The main event of the senior-sponsored ball which was held in February was the election of a "George and Martha". The two seniors chosen to reign were Albert Cooper and Barbara Vargo.





REMEMBER WHEN Jerry Hamm was elected Junior Prom Queen? Harry Warren and Bill Kelley played in the Junior Vaudeville? Mary Ann Gulley and Bill Short played in the Sadie Hawkins act? This year's activities are represented by other scenes about the school. Mr. Ross Campbell measures Gerald Smith and Perry Maschino for caps and gowns. Finis Jent works at a lathe in one of the shops. Phyllis Strouse, Elnora Combs, and Rebecca Comstock enjoy lunch in the cafeteria; Sue Blank and Tommy Walls prepare for the Junior Red Cross campaign.

The Boosters

Mirror, mirror, on the wall
Freshmen heard your service call...

Yes, and now as seniors we realize just how much better citizens we are because we answered that call. We, at Washington, are very fortunate to have so many varied activities. No matter where a student's interest lies, he is sure to find at least one club in which he may actively participate. Through these clubs, a student can become better-know by his classmates, and, at the same time, develop his personality by working with other people. He gains poise and experience.

One of the largest clubs at Washington High School is the Booster Club. This group plans pep sessions, sports banquets, and maintains an organized cheering section at sports events.

President of the Booster Club is Joan Hart. Other officers are: Maranel Hart, senior representative; Donna Patterson, junior representative; Sue Cauble, sophmore representative; and Beverly Fisher, freshman representative.

National Honor Society

Student Council

The Student Council is a representative student group which strives to improve the material conditions of the school and to further good relations with other high schools of the city. Officeers of the Student Council are: Kenny Ayres, president; Paul Harding, vice-president; Eddie Kernodle, secretary; James Abraham, treasurer; Clyde Lee, sgt.-at-arms.

Membership in the National Honor Society is based upon leadership, scholarship, and service. Officers are: Bill Fisher, president; Shirley Haines, vice-president; Beverly Albright, secretary; Don Cozart, treasurer. Other members shown are: Marjorie Trammell, Elaine Demos, Shirley Newnum, Sue Blank, Dessie Goode, Betty Engle, Wayne Stanfield, Maranel Hart, Patricia Bishop, Richard Becker, Paul Harding. Members not in the picture are: Nan Lou King, Rose Nightlinger, Josephine Hoff, Peggy Leach, Wilma Lindsey, Marjorie Murdock, Norma Lambert, Beverly Lahne, Kenneth Ayres, Mary Jane Lanman, Robert Beasley, Phyllis Boone. Lloyd Brown, Nadine Capps, Martha Curtiss, Richard Figg, Robert Hamontre, Donna Hibbard, Lila Littrell, Willadean Martin, Elizabeth Moore, Margaret Stansbury, Lois Tutterow, Barbara Vargo, Jacqueline Williamson, Jean Brodie, Esther Canalas, Carolyn Comer, Loretta Compton, Phyllis Crockett, Mary Jane Hoffman, Phyllis Hobensack, Carol Johnson, Bill Porter, Norma Riley, Beverly Spradley, Doris Stevenson, Thomas Walls, and Mildred Walsh.

Washingtonians

The Washingtonian Club officers are: Sue Blank, president; Shirley Newum, vice-president; Judy Meloy, secretary; and Barbara Vargo, treasurer. The club sponsor is Miss Myrtle Johnson. The Washingtonian Club is composed of senior girls. These girls plan the parties which welcome the freshmen girls to our school.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y Club sponsor is Mr. Jewell Stingley. The officers are: Frank Fleser, president; Dan Whitmore, vice-president; Finis Jent, secretary; Rex Durrett, treasurer; Charles Fender, sergeant at-arms; and Bill Kern, chaplain. Other members are: Bill Harrell, Eddie Kernodle, Bob Ray, and Kenneth Ayres.

Latin Club

The Latin Club president is Beverly Spradley; Shirley Newnum is vice-president; Tommy Walls, secretary; Herschel Northern, treasurer. The Latin Club sponsors are Mr. William Bock, Mrs. Iva Head, and Mrs. Hester Bock. These pupils study the customs of ancient Rome. They also enlarge their vocabularies by the study of English words which come from Latin words.

History Library

The history library with its many clippings and reference books provides much reference material for students. Don Moore, Finis Jent, and Roberta Cubert are talking to Miss Marjorie Reinhart about some research for history.

Visual Aids

Jr. Red Cross

Advanced Art Class

Below we find pictured the advanced art class. This was the class which made the etchings for our book this year. Bill Crutchfield, an art major and art assistant, created the fine etching of the front of our school building which appears on page one. Mr. James Komuro, exchange art teacher from Hawaii, was the teacher of this class. Several of the members of this class are art majors. Each spring the senior art majors exhibit their work in the upper corridors.

Dramatics

Each year in December as the Christmas season begins, faculty and students alike begin looking forward to the Chirstmas play.

This is a project of the speech classes under the direction of Mrs. Bess Wright, director of productions.

Among the projects of the speech classes are plays commemorating special events and oratorical contests. Speech students always participate in the annual Poetry Reading Contest which is held each spring under the auspices of the English Department.

Patricia Bishop, Beverly Albright, Robert Stock, Paul Harding, and Ann Leonard were cast in a radio play given in the fall.

Several members of the Christmas play cast were Ruth Dortch, Robert Stock, Patricia Bishop, Ronald Knarr, William Haines, Beverly Albright, and Judith Meloy.

Panel Discussion

Participating in a panel discussion in history class are: Joe Butterworth, Bill Short, Mike Purichia, Jackie Williamson, Agnes Totton, Sara Hilton, Aileen Shaffer, Lavina Binishoff, Shirley Stevens, and Barbara Vargo. Miss Jean Ober is the teacher.

C. G. A. A.

Officers of the C.G.A.A. are: Barbara Vargo, president; Lois Coy, vice-president; Ilene Benge, secretary. Sharol Goddard is manager of basketball, and Donna Tuggle is manager of volley ball. C.G.A.A. provides girls with an opportunity to enjoy team games such as baseball, basketball, and volley ball. Mrs. Virginia Kassler and Miss Eileen Macartney are sponsors.

Row 3: Wayne Ormsby, Bob Hightower, Don Adams, Charles McCallister, Bill Kern, Dwight McKenney, Don Maners, Russell White, Rex Durrett, and Mr. Edward Emery.

Print Shop

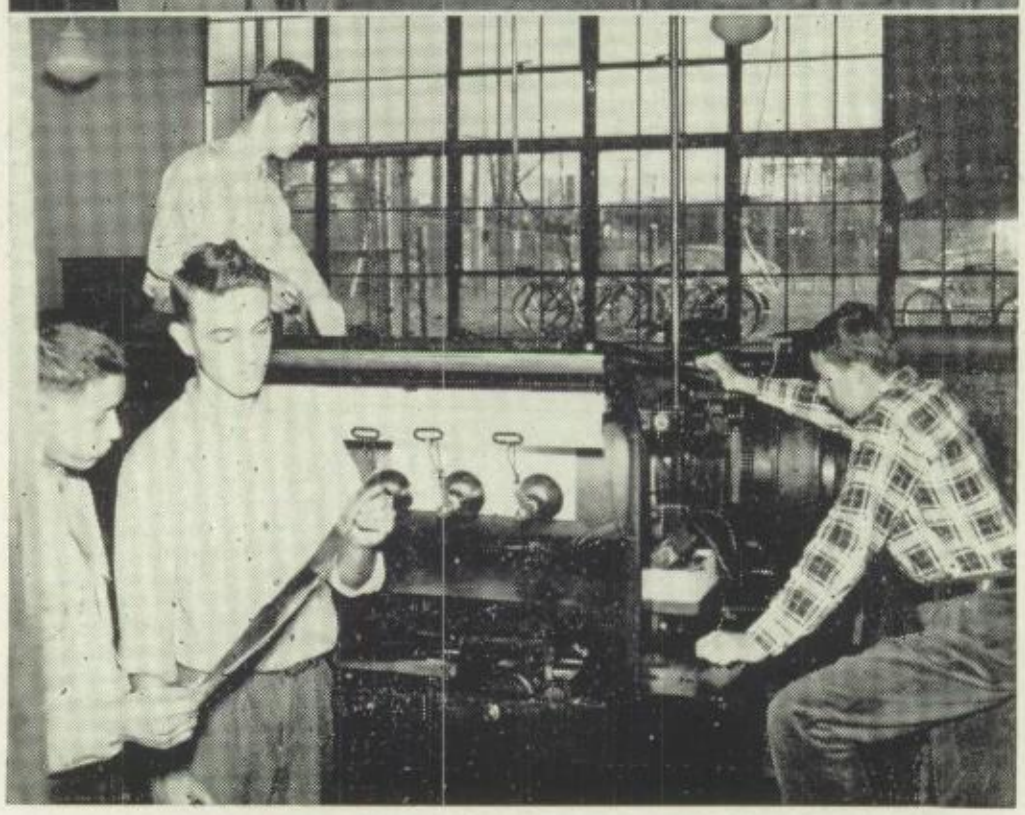
Harold Heicken sets type in the print shop which is presided over by Mr. Ocal Muterspaugh. The yearbook, the Surveyor, dance programs, and all of our school forms are printed in these classes.

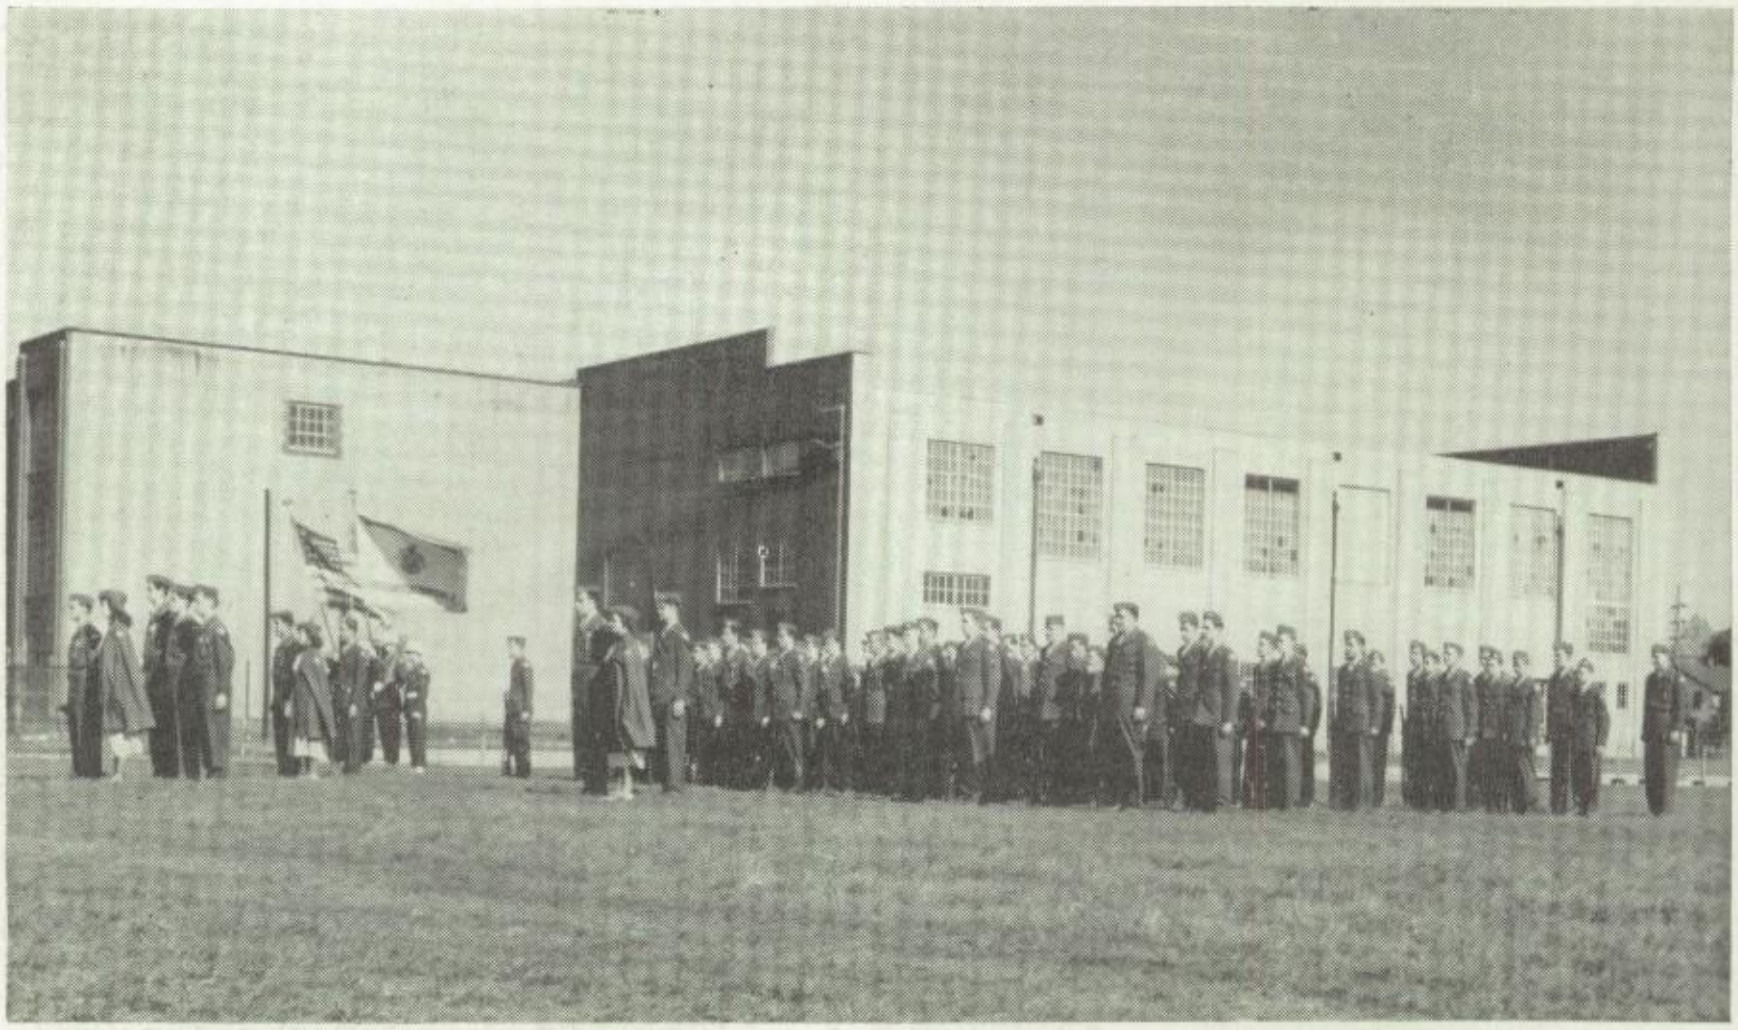
Electric Shop

Need a radio fixed? The boys in the electric shop know how it is done. Exploring the intricacies of electricity are: Don Quantz, Paul Byers, and Willard Noel. Mr. R. J. Weaver is the teacher.

Cylinder Press

Working at the cylinder press are: James Bray, Gerald Lindsay, Harry Jack, Robert Humble. These boys, under the direction of Mr. Robert LeMaster, learn the art of being press men.





Parade Day

R. O. T. C. Units Are Marching

The R. O. T. C. cadets have had a big year. Headed by two new instructors, Sgt. Dalton L. King and Sgt. Leland R. Anderson, the cadets with the newly-organized girls unit have taken over many responsibilities around the school. The boys guard the parking lot during basketball games and P.-T. A. meetings, and the girls help with registration and collections at P.-T. A. meetings. We are also sure that many freshmen were thankful for the girls in uniform who helped them on their first day of school.

The boys' rifle team consisting of Laurence Shirley, Keith Powell, Harry Jack, Paul McClelland, John Lightfoot, William Hoagland, Jerry Kerkhoff, Paul Bishop, Larry Lawalin, and David Hodge, topped a good year by placing first among city teams in the Randolph Hearst Trophy Match.

The greatest change in the R. O. T. C. this year has been the addition of a girls' unit. The girls form one company of the battalion with Capt. Iris Wilson as commanding officer assisted by 1st Lieutenant Alyce Lawson. Although none of the girls had had previous training, they came through with flying colors in the Armistice Day Parade and helped win the first place streamer on our flag.

The R. O. T. C. is proud of its year, and the nchool is proud of its unit. The R. O. T. C. helps prepare the student to be a good citizen and helps to develop the qualities of leadership.

Surveyor Staff

The Surveyor staffs this year have been paced by Bill Porter, editor-in-chief during the spring semester, and James Moore, editor, during the fall term. Pat McCammeron has acted as assistant editor and business manager for both semesters. Through all the pressure of constantly meeting deadlines, Mrs. Betty Werthman has presided over the classes as sponsor.

Changes in staff positions for the second semester included: Bill Porter, editor-in-chief; Judy Meloy, page 2 editor; Jeanne Jent, exchange editor; and the addition of Jimmeye Sue Fox, Lois Ann Robison, Paula Weare, Roberta Cubert, reporters.

Staff members act as correspondents for the Indianapolis newspapers. The girls report the regular news and the boys the sports news. The correspondents are: Charlene Bradshaw and Kenny Ayres, Indianapolis Star; Jackie Williamson and Harry Warren, Indianapolis News; Sue Blank and Bill Porter, Indianapolis Times; Elizabeth Hill was correspondent for the community papers.

Yearbook Staff

The Flashback is the product of a year's endeavor by the Journalism Y class. These seniors have had a busy year. In September they made a dummy showing the layout of the book. They listed the pictures they wished to include and made arrangements for the taking of these pictures. A schedule was set up for the taking of individual senior pictures and underclassmen pictures. Subscription campaigns were conducted and senior fees collected. Pictures were mounted and sent to the engraver; proofs began coming back and the book began to take form. The first copy went to the printer during March. At this writing the staff is busy cutting, pasting, writing, typing, and proof reading, attempting to keep Mr. Ocal Muterspaugh's print shop boys supplied with an even flow of material.

Elaine Demos has served as editor-in-chief of The Flashback, and Rose Nightlinger has served as business manager. Other staff members, each of whom has been a departmental editor are: Kenneth Ayres, Joan Hart, Josephine Hoff, Nan Lou King, Helen Nickoloff, Mary Kay Norman, Rosalyn Porten, Irene Rejko, Phyllis Shackleford, Aileen Shaffer, Barbara Vargo, Meryl Zucker. At the beginning of the second semester Iris Wilson and Alice Palmer became staff members. Mrs. Betty Werthman was faculty sponsor.

Sitting are: Rose Nightlinger, Elaine Demos, Rosie Porten, Mrs. Werthman, Nan Lou King, Irene Rejko, Phyllis Shackleford, and Kenny Ayres. Standing are: Josephine Hoff, Barbara Vargo, Joan Hart, Aileen Shaffer, Mary Kay Norman, and Helen Nickoloff.

SPORTS

With the return of thirteen letter winners from last year's successful season Coach Henry Bogue looked forward to the 1949 football season. He might have been disappointed in the outcome, but he has molded a great team for next year.

Cheerleaders are: Bill Harrell, Norman Jones, Margie Whitmore, Tommy Walls, Barbara Carter, Shirley Fulton, Dorothy Nicoloff, and Betty Poland.

Sports' Summary

The sport scene at Washington during the '49 '50 season was just fair. The teams under the direction of such capable coaches as Henry Bogue, Frank Luzar, Cloyd Julian, Dave Hine, Amos Slaton, and John Williams, had the following records.

Mr. Bogue's football team had an over-all record of 3 wins, 4 defeats, and 2 ties. Although this was a mediocre record, two boys placed on the Indianapolis Star and Indianapolis News all-city teams. These boys were Mike Purichia and Bill Cook.

Mr. Hine's basketball team had a record of 9 and 11. Bob Border was the leading scorer. Border made the second team for the all-city quintet. Mr. Hine has seven returning lettermen next year.

For the spring sports, Mr. Luzar's baseball team had some good prospects like Robert (Ace) Bell, Jim Lee, Bill Howe, Bud Smith, and Big Bill Cook.

The track squad has a host of juniors and sophomores under Mr. Julian. Larry Lord is the captain of the team. The golf team is headed by Jack Bartley, and coached by Dave Hine. The cross country team, captained by Joe Butterworth had a fine record coming in third in the city, third in the sectional, and eighth in the state.

The reserve basketball team, coached by Mr. Slaton won the four-way tourney at Tech. Bill Springer, a freshman, led the attack for the season. The reserve football team, under Mr. Luzar had a fair record. Outstanding players were Charles Harper, Bob Hicks, and Bill Smith.

The freshman basketball team had an average season getting in winning stride at the finish. Phil Peterson was high scorer. Mr. John Williams was the coach. The freshman football team had a fair season also.

As we flash back to one year ago, we can vividly remember the various activities in which we as juniors participated. We'll have to admit that this year's class has done a fine job. The Vaudeville and the Junior Prom are among the numerous activities planned by the class. The officers of this year's junior class are: Finis Jent, president; Carol Johnson, vice-president; Jim Abraham, secretary; LaVonne Matthews, treasurer; Bill Cook and Hershell Northern, sergeants-at-arms. The elective committee was composed of Elizabeth Hill, Arlan Lickliter, Donna Patterson, Jackie Polley, Beverly Vargo, and Harry Warren. This year's sponsors are Mrs. Thelma Ford and Mr. G. L. Woodruff.
